

What it Means to be a Cowboy

Being a Cockrill Cowboy means being who you want to be. Everyone at the school will be open to who you are. The environment at Cockrill makes all kids feel welcome. The students apply helping hands to one another. Each individual student has a different quality that makes a classroom fun. A cowboy is able to work with everyone and make what needs to happen, happen.