

Twins

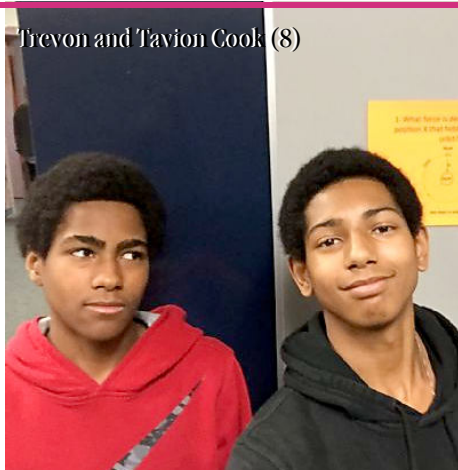

Got Twins?

Here at Cockrill we seem to have a high population of twins. Did you know we have TWENTY sets of twins and even a set of TRIPLETS! We managed to capture all of them being twins in these selfies.

Lacie and Luke Johnson (6)

Trevon and Tavion Cook (8)

Ellie and Jack Burton (7)

Liam and Logan Kelly (7)

Mia and Maya Alexander (8)

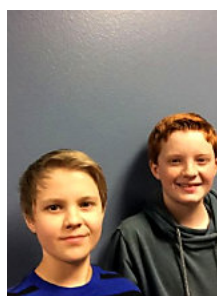

Identical twins Emma and Marissa Peace (8), pictured to the right, both have a passion for running and enjoyed running cross-country together the past two years. That is about the only thing they do together. One is in band, the others orchestra, one is into technology and the other prefers more artistic approach.

Tori and Todd Spears (6)

Madison and Morgan Span (7)

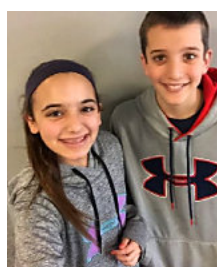

Andrew and Justin Simmons (7)

Colby and Josh Owens (8)

Maddie And Mollie Casey (8)

Gianna and Michael Murphy (6)

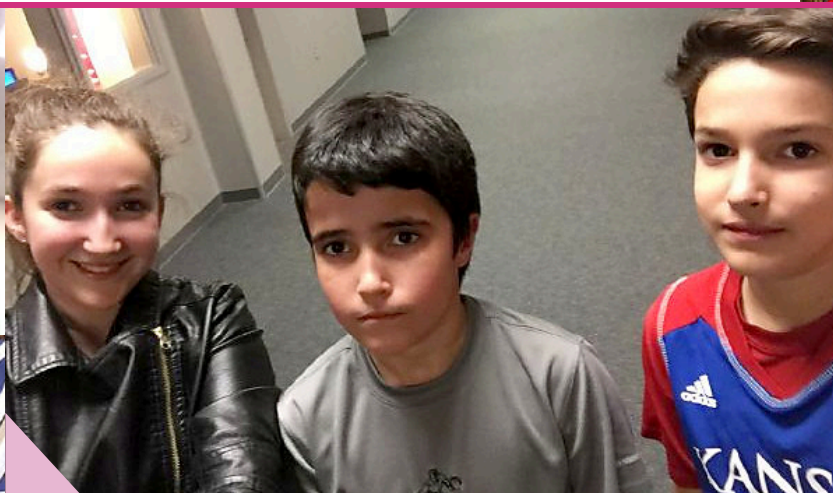

Dynamic Duo

Luke and Hayes Malone (7) are fraternal twins in seventh grade. Luke and Hayes both enjoy playing sports and will be doing track in the spring. They both plays soccer for the Ayses. They both have a goal to play in major league soccer.

Austin and Dillon Markiewicz (8)

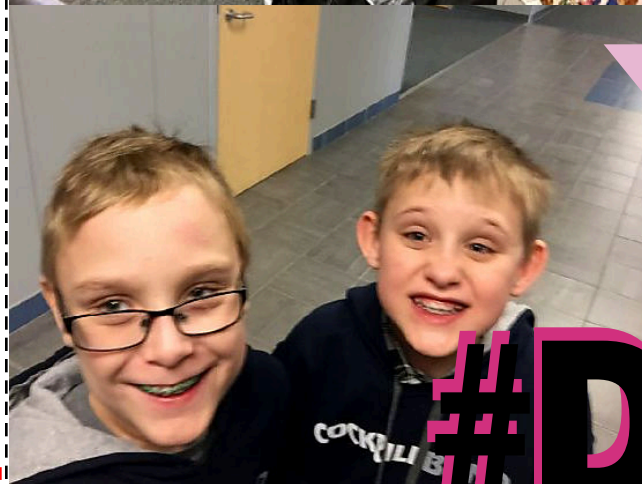

Triple the Threat

Bella, Noah & Luke Alvidres (6) are triplets here are Cockrill, they even have an older sister here in 8th grade as well.

Elijah and Marques Alexander (6)

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Brian and Christopher Dargel (6) are fraternal twins. "My favorite part about being a twin is I get to be Christopher's brother forever." Brian said. Christopher enjoys being Brian's twin because "On Halloween I get to eat all of Brian's candy and we get to play video games together."

#Double-Up

Trinity and London Souther (7)

Blake and Karrigan Barnes (7)

John and Katie Newsom (7)

Dream and Diamond Hayes (8)