

Friendship is two or more people who will stick together, do anything for each other and do things like lay on the ground to make people happy. In these photos, groups of friends make the letters to the word friendship. The groups of friends represent the quality doing anything for each other. <3

By: Lauren Hirshouer & Makenzie Hall